TAKE THE BUGLE TOWER TOUR!

HEY THERE! WELCOME TO THE DAILY BUGLE TOWER - THE HOME OF NEW YORK'S MOST TRUSTED NEWS SOURCE. READY FOR A QUICK TOUR? HEAD THIS WAY...

Starting on the ground floor, grab a drink from the cooler and our receptionist will check you in. Out on street level you'll find a host of authentic New York characters and icons. Just try not to make eye contact with Sandman... (continues...)

Ground floor.

Street level.

Let's continue...

Heading up in the lift, our first stop is the bullpen, the beating heart of the Daily Bugle's news operations, where you might catch our team of journalists working on a Spider-Man front page scandal (or just helping themselves to doughnuts). On the second floor, you'll find our photographer, Peter Parker. He's a ... pretty normal guy. Mind that nasty-looking spider though... On the top floor, you'll find our editor J. Jonah Jameson calling the shots. Best to stay out of his way - he can be a bit grouchy - and DEFINITELY don't mention Spider-Man... You might notice some loud noises during your stay here. Don't worry about that. It's most likely Venom, Doc Ock, Green Goblin or one of the other villains engaged in deadly battle on the exterior of the building. Happens every day. Spider-Man, Daredevil, Blade, or one of the other good guys will be along soon enough to sort them out. And that concludes your tour. Any questions?

Venom fight on the backside.

Blade on roof.

BUILDING THE BUGLE

DAILY BUGLE EXCLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH LEGO® DESIGNER MARK JOHN
STAFFORD BY BEN URICH

Mr Stafford. Thanks for your time. You were tasked with creating the LEGO® version of the iconic Daily Bugle HQ, so beloved by fans of the so-called 'Spider-Man.' What was your approach?

Thanks for having me, Ben. The Bugle tower has been part of mythos for so long. I really wanted to capture that authentic New York setting with features like the water tower, the yellow taxi and the newspaper stand. After that, I just wanted to include as many heroes and as much action as I could!

What kind of challenges did you face in creating the Bugle?

Well, we really wanted to show off the interior of the building in some way and show some classic Bugle scenes inside. There was a lot of building and rebuilding, and one day I was trying some things out and came up with the idea of the removable front windows. From that moment, everything kind of clicked (no pun intended)..

The rat in the alley.

There's a lot for fans to love in this set – are there any hidden touches you're especially happy with?

You'll notice a rat in the alleyway, that's a fun little call-back to the rodent who changed the course of destiny by walking across the control panel in Avengers: Endgame.

And how about you? What character or element is your personal favourite?

As a Daredevil fan, getting the green light to include the first ever LEGO® Daredevil was really exciting. I made sure he was in a prominent place, right at the front of the building, in his classic bright red suit. It's a small thing, but he's been my personal favourite for a long time, so I was very happy with that.

HEADLINE NEWS

INTERVIEW WITH LEGO® GRAPHIC DESIGNER MARK TRANTER

"I'm a true Spider-Man fan, so I wanted to get as much of that universe into this set as possible. Fans will really enjoy the little jokes and references to classic stories – like the clone epidemic or Norman Osborne running for Mayor. With each of the main characters in the set I wanted to hint towards their backstory, so Daredevil has "Nelson and Murdoch" and Blade has "Vampires Spotted on the Subway" which is one of my personal favourites!"
